U.S. States Protecting Against Gender Ideology

As LGBTQ activists try and push radical gender ideology in America, states are now enacting legislation to protect the fundamental rights of children, parents, and women in the public sector. These commonsense laws recognize that biology is fixed at conception and giving legal credence to fiction would undermine the law and cause chaos and significant harm.

For example:

- Minors must be protected from receiving puberty blockers, hormones, and mutilating surgeries to remove healthy male or female organs, especially without parental consent.
- Children must be protected from exposure to lewd drag show performances with “male or female impersonators.”
- Females must have the freedom to participate in athletic events without competing against biological males.
- Biological males must not have access to females in private spaces such as bathrooms, dressing rooms, and locker rooms.

Here are the latest states with enacted laws in these areas:

- 23 protect female sports from biological males
 - 4 states blocked amid legal challenges
- 22 states ban puberty blockers, hormone therapies, and mutilating surgeries for minors
 - 6 states blocked amid legal challenges
- 16 states codify parental rights giving parents the “fundamental right to make decisions concerning the upbringing, education, and care of their child.”
- 9 states mandate use of public school bathrooms according to biological sex
- 7 states protect students/teachers from having to use someone’s “preferred pronouns”

- 6 states ban public adult performances (drag shows) for minors
 - 2 states blocked amid a legal challenge
- 4 states prohibit classroom instruction on gender/sexual orientation in a manner not age-appropriate

States with enacted laws protecting against gender ideology

(Updated August 29, 2023)

Alabama

*Medical:

“The Alabama Vulnerable Child Compassion and Protection Act”

- Bans puberty blockers, hormone therapies, and mutilating surgeries for people up to 19 years of age.
- The law makes violations a felony.
- The law requires counselors, teachers, principals and other administrators — in both public and private schools — to tell parents if a child discloses any gender dysphoria.

 A federal appeals court ruled Alabama can fully enforce the law while the legal challenge continues.

Schools/Education/Bathrooms:

HB322

- Requires K-12 public schools to designate bathrooms and locker rooms upon the basis of sex.
- Prohibits classroom instruction or discussion on sexual orientation or gender identity for students in kindergarten through the fifth grade in a manner that is not age-appropriate or developmentally appropriate for students in accordance with state standards.
